

General terms and conditions Sfar swimming courses

- Registration is only possible via our online form.
- Registrations function on a first come – first serve basis and are binding.
- Cancellation, by e-mail only, is possible until 14 days before the beginning of the training course.
- If participation is cancelled after confirmation (which is sent to you by e-mail) a service charge of CHF 20.00 applies.
- After the beginning of the training course no reimbursement can be given.
- The course fees are due to be paid within 30 days of receipt of the confirmation, or latest 7 days before the beginning of the training course.
- We will do our best to consider individual wishes and needs; final decision rests with the head of course instructors.
- You need to register separately for each follow-up course.
- No reimbursement is given for missed lessons (due to holidays, illness, etc.) nor for lessons or courses that couldn't take place due to force majeure (forces of nature, pandemics, technical issues within the premises).
- The responsibility for insurance lies with participants individually.
- The number of participants is limited to 24.
- Course instructors follow the provisions and regulations of Jugend & Sport, Swiss Aquatics, schwimmsports.ch and BASPO.
- One course instructor is generally in charge of 12 children / participants maximum.
- No concessions apply for relatives.

